Ομάδα σύνταξης: Μαργαρίτα Αντωνίου, Αλέξανδρος Κατράνης, Στέφανος Λαζαρίδης,¹

ΕΙΣΑΓΩΓΙΚΑ – ΣΧΟΛΙΑ²

- Τουρκία προβάλλει βελτίωση σχέσεων με Ελλάδα, αλλά δεν μετακινείται από θέσεις της για «θαλάσσια πατρίδα» κτλ. Άγκυρα χαρακτηρίζει Ελλάδα ως «απειλή»
Εν αναμονή σχηματισμού κυβερνήσεως στα Σκόπια ουδεμία αλλαγή στη στάση τους στο θέμα του ονόματος. Χρησιμοποιούν όρο «Μακεδονία», δεν αμφισβητούν Συμφωνία Πρεσπών.
- Τουρκία επιδιώκει συζήτηση θεμάτων ασφαλείας και άμυνας εντός NATO, όχι ΕΕ
Προσέγγιση Τουρκίας-Ιράκ
Επιδείνωση σχέσεων Τουρκίας-Ισραήλ. Περιορισμός εμπορικών σχέσεων.
- Καταδίκη Donald Trump μάλλον δεν μετριάξει προοπτικές εκλογής του κατά εκλογές Νοεμβρίου.
ΗΠΑ επιδιώκουν στρατιωτική συνεργασία ή/και συμμαχία με κράτη Νοτια-Ανατολικής Ασίας κατά Κίνας. Γίνεται λόγος για επέκταση NATO στην Ασία
- Προώθηση ρωσικών στρατευμάτων στο Χάρκοβο προκαλεί μεγάλη ανησυχία στο Κίεβο και δυτικές πρωτεύουσες. Δύση δεν είναι δυνατόν συμβιβαστεί με «ήττα» Ουκρανίας έχοντας «επενδύσει» πολλά σε πόλεμο κατά Ρωσίας, δεν διακινδυνεύει, όμως, (περαιτέρω) κλιμάκωση πολέμου. ΗΠΑ συμφώνησαν να επιτρέψουν σε Κίεβο επίθεση εντός ρωσικού εδάφους προς εξουδετέρωση ρωσικών επιθετικών θέσεων, Γαλλία δέχτηκε αποστολή Γάλλων εκπαιδευτών στην Ουκρανία, παρουσία στρατιωτικού προσωπικού ΗΒ είναι γνωστή. Αναμένεται σκλήρυνση θέσεων Πολωνίας. Διαφωνίες, πάντως, εκ μέρους άλλων συμμάχων. Διφορούμενη στάση Γερμανίας.
- Κατά επίσημη επίσκεψη Emmanuel Macron στη Γερμανία και συνεδρίαση γαλλογερμανικού υπουργικού συμβουλίου δεν φαίνεται να επετεύχθη επανεκκίνηση γαλλογερμανικής «ευρωπαϊκής ατμομηχανής», καθώς απόψεις δύο πλευρών διαφοροποιούνται σε πολλά σημεία (πχ γαλλική πυρηνική ασπίδα έναντι γερμανικής εμπνεύσεως σχεδίου αντιπυραυλικής άμυνας).
- Ισραήλ επιτέθηκε στη Ράφα προκαλώντας ανθρώπινα θύματα και υλικές καταστροφές

² Οι ενδείξεις με πλάγια γράμματα αποτελούν σχόλια του συντάκτη.

Δύσκολη θέση Netanyahu, οποίος πολιορκείται εκ μέρους ακροδεξιών μελών κυβερνητικού συνασπισμού να μην ενδώσει σε συμφωνία κατάπαυσης πυρός με Χαμάς και από ηγεσία και στελέχη Ισραηλινών Ενόπλων Δυνάμεων και αντιπολίτευση. Μέλη κυβέρνησης που δεν ανήκουν στο κυβερνητικό κόμμα Likud ζήτησαν διενέργεια εκλογών

- 10^η Υπουργική Διάσκεψη Συνεργασίας Κίνας-Αραβικών Κρατών. Συμμετοχή Αιγυπτίου Προέδρου Al-Sisi.
- Συνεργασία Ν. Κορέας, Ιαπωνίας, Κίνας σε θέματα ασφαλείας
- Σημασία ναυτιλίας για ελληνική οικονομία και προβλήματα που αντιμετωπίζει
Η πολιτική της ΕΕ για τη ναυτιλία προκαλεί αρνητικά σχόλια από ελληνικούς επιχειρηματικούς κύκλους

Turkey's Government Enables Terrorists

(27/05/2024)

Erdogan's government nevertheless flows its resources to almost every terrorist group in the region to pursue Muslim Brotherhood-style Islamist ideological and territorial goals, impose sharia law, to harm or destroy "infidel" nations, and to establish its Islamist dominance throughout the world.

Any future financial cooperation between the West and Turkey should depend on the Turkish government's human rights record towards the Turkish people and requiring that Turkey end its relationships with all these terrorist groups and regimes that have cost the lives of thousands of innocent people in the region.

Turkey committed to preventing EU from playing prominent role in Europe's defense, security

(29/05/2024)

Turkey's influence within the EU, as a candidate country, is not equivalent to its influence within NATO. Consequently, its strategic objective remains the undermining of NATO-EU cooperation schemes and preventing the EU from assuming a dominant role in the continent's security and defense policies. This stance was reiterated in the Turkish Defense Ministry's 2024 report.

The Iraq-Turkey Reset

(29/05/24)

On April 22, Turkish president Recep Tayyip Erdogan traveled to Baghdad to meet with Iraqi prime minister Mohammed Shia al-Sudani, marking his first visit there in thirteen years. The trip produced several significant bilateral agreements on energy, water, security, trade, and transportation, signaling a mutual desire to improve relations. Given the tumultuous nature of Iraqi-Turkish ties since the 1950s, this development could represent a historic turning point. Why are Ankara and Baghdad patching up their ties now, and what implications does this reset hold for the broader Middle East and U.S. policy?

Turkey's Trade Ban on Israel : A Critical Appraisal

(31/05/24)

In April, 2024, Turkey announced a trade ban on Israel, citing the Israel's refusal to allow Turkish planes to airdrop aid into Gaza as the primary impetus. The Turkish Ministry of Trade outlined 54 categories of goods, which includes items such as iron, marble, steel, cement, aluminium, bricks, fertilizer, construction equipment, and aviation fuel that will be subjected to the export ban. Later on May 2, Turkey announced a complete halt to all trade transactions with Israel following the trade restrictions imposed earlier. The ban, Turkey declared, would remain in place until Israel declared a ceasefire and allowed the “uninterrupted and sufficient flow” of humanitarian aid. This move comes against the backdrop of a protracted and bloody conflict in Gaza, where over 36,096 Palestinians have been reportedly killed over a seven-month period. Furthermore, Erdogan has also appealed all the OIC member states to impose the trade ban on Israel in line with the organization’s recommendation.

Ex-Pentagon Electronic Warfare Specialist Highlights Implications of Russia's EW Advantage

(29/05/24)

Following a growing number of reports from a range of Western sources highlighting the game changing impacts of advanced Russian electronic warfare (EW) capabilities in its ongoing effort in Ukraine, EMP Task Force scholar and former U.S. Department of Defence officer David T. Pyne has provided further insight into prevailing evaluations of Russia's capabilities. "Russia has the most capable electronic warfare systems in the world with the longest range and most powerful GPS and radio frequency jammers of any nation," he stated, adding that he had been impressed by "the speed at which Russian long range jammers have been able to adapt to jamming new U.S. and NATO weapon systems that have been introduced into the conflict."

Russian electronic warfare systems "have proven effective at causing 90% of guided missile and drone systems supplied by the U.S. to Ukraine to miss their target, most importantly HIMARS," he stated, adding that Russian GPS jammers "will likely prove increasingly effective against the recently supplied extended range U.S. ATACMS missiles as well." Pyne elaborated that Russian jamming systems were likely to be "proving increasingly effective against U.S. supplied Ukrainian air defence systems including Patriot and Hawk missiles enabling Russia to increase its air superiority over Ukraine," stressing that this air superiority was contributing significantly to major Russian advances across several areas of the front.

U.S Lets Ukraine Fire Ballistic Missiles Deep into Russia : Will Missile Early Warning Radar's Be Their First Target?

U.S. officials have confirmed that the Joe Biden administration has “recently” approved Ukraine's use of U.S.-supplied weapons to strike territory internationally recognised as Russian. The implications of this are significant due to the approved and initially

secret transfer of ATACMS ballistic missiles to the country in February, which provide Ukrainian forces with a much longer reach into Russian territory. Speaking to the U.S. media outlet The War Zone officials reported: “The President recently directed his team to ensure that Ukraine is able to use U.S.-supplied weapons for counter-fire purposes in the Kharkiv region so Ukraine can hit back against Russian forces that are attacking them or preparing to attack them.” Although this means significant limitations are in place, it has been increasingly speculated that Ukraine may strike a wider range of targets claiming that they were struck with non-U.S. systems. Britain, Poland and other NATO members have notably placed less restrictions on the use of their equipment, with British personnel in Ukraine playing a central role in facilitating the use of cruise missile systems to strike Russian targets. Facilitating Ukrainian strikes on a broader range of targets across Russia has been actively called for by the organisation’s secretary general Jens Stoltenberg.

Russia's Defence Industrial Heartland Could Soon Be under the Gun of Ukrainian Drones
(28/05/24)

While Ukraine’s fortunes on the battlefield have stagnated and to an extent reversed since the failed summer 2023 counteroffensive, in some areas Kyiv continues to find and exploit advantages. One of the most notable areas where Ukraine maintains the upper hand is exploiting vulnerabilities in the Russian air defense network to launch a series of effective long distance drone strikes on military bases and industrial facilities across the south and west of Russia. Systems such as the ‘Liutiy’ loitering munition UAV system with its 600-mile combat radius and its 110-pound explosive payload, in particular, have been responsible for a series of successful attacks against Russian oil refineries in recent months that have marred Moscow’s ability to produce and export oil and gas for the domestic and international market.

Netanyahu 's war with the generals

(31/05/24)

When Israeli army chief Herzl Halevi participated in a security cabinet meeting this past January, he was attacked by ministers allied with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu over his plan to open an internal probe into the army's failures prior to, and during, the deadly Oct. 7 Hamas massacre. Odd as it may seem that government ministers chose to attack the nation's top general in the midst of Israel's biggest war in five decades, the incident was part and parcel of Netanyahu's campaign to direct the blame for the debacle, as well as the subsequent failures in the management of the war, squarely on the security establishment, while avoiding taking personal responsibility that would cost him his job.

Failure to Open Rafah Crossing Border (27/05/24)

The humanitarian catastrophe in Gaza has continued to escalate at a rapid rate, with thousands killed, internally and externally displaced, injured, and left for dead. The country of Palestine is being eradicated at a constant rate by the Israeli defense forces and the Israeli government. The ongoing genocide has led to the multiple humanitarian crises. Specifically, caused by the failure and lack of opening the Rafah border by Egypt. The Rafah border closure has exacerbated the already current dire situation in the Gaza Strip and Palestinian regions, leading to the increasing suffering of Palestinians. Despite the calls from millions of people protesting across the world, and calls from several international organizations, Egypt has failed to open the Rafah border, limiting the movement of aid, food trucks, and people in and out of the Gaza Strip.

The Gaza War is Eroding Egypt-Israel Relations
(28/05/24)

On May 27, Egyptian forces posted at the Gaza border opened fire on Israeli forces operating in Rafah, reportedly because they were “affected by the massacre” they believed was occurring there. In the resulting exchange of fire, an Egyptian soldier was killed. While such incidents are not unprecedented, Monday’s skirmish signals a significant bilateral shift—after years of warming relations, the Gaza war has sent Egypt-Israel ties hurtling back toward their nadir

Where circumpolar states including Sweden, Norway, and Greenland remained a source of information and resources during World War 2. The major militarization of the Arctic could be seen during the Cold War. Still, the conflict potential was mitigated either through international cooperation on arms control or through US-Soviet diplomacy. Under this fragile polar environment, the circumpolar states and even the non-Arctic states find interest in the national growth, capability, and strategic ability of the Arctic region which is becoming a major reason for militarization of the region.

A Golden Jubilation (27/05/24)

When much of the world was preoccupied with the pandemic, a French arbitration court ruled to compensate almost US$15 billion dollars to the heirs of the Sultanate of Sulu, a sui generis “subnational monarchy” in the southern Philippines. Almost immediately, this pushed into the global limelight the “Tausug”, the indigenous people of Sulu who have lived in this archipelago for more than six centuries. Though the heirs technically won the case, the real victory was for their people who have been struggling to keep their lands, customs, and traditions for more than a hundred years.

NATO IS FLIRTING WITH WAR AND EXTINCTION
(01/06/2024)

The likely result of all this is that the Ukraine war will continue. NATO will take even more losses, including NATO soldiers. Behind the scenes plans to use air power or NATO ground forces are unlikely to happen, given the dire consequences for Europe. NATO flirting with a bigger war is horribly risky, as serious thinkers in Europe and the United States realize. Spooking the Russians to back off by attacking Russian territory or sending in French soldiers, will not work as the Russians have already priced in that reality and are plowing ahead with the war in Ukraine. Furthermore NATO's failure to negotiate over Ukraine means the bleeding out of NATO's already limited capabilities will continue. Some NATO states may decide they need to look elsewhere for security. Is NATO flirting with extinction?

How SCO Contributes to Security in Eurasia
(27/05/24)

In early July 2024, the SCO summit will be held in Astana, where the agenda calls for reviewing about 30 documents and signing a resolution on the accession of Belarus to the organization. The meeting's declared motto is ‘Strengthening Multilateral Dialogue – Striving for Sustainable

Peace and Development.’ In July, Kazakhstan will also be the venue for operational-tactical anti-terrorist exercises ‘Unification-2024.’ President Kasym-Jomart Tokayev suggested that Kazakhstan, a country that chairs the SCO in 2024, “adheres to the principle of indivisibility of Eurasian security, and this approach should form the basis of reaching the strategic task of forming a security belt around the SCO perimeter.”

Εθνική και διεθνής Οικονομία – Ενέργεια – Ναυτιλία

(31/05/2024)

Πορίσματα

1. Η παγκόσμια οικονομία είναι «εξαρτώμενη» από τη ναυτιλία. Διακίνηση πρώτων υλών, αγαθών και σύνθετων προϊόντων σε ποσοστό άνω του 80% παράσταται αδιανόητη δίχως πλοιομεταφορά.
2. Βιομηχανία και παραγωγή, γεωργία, ενέργεια, λιανεμπόριο, βασίζονται στην εισαγωγή πρώτων υλών και στηρίζονται στην πρόσβαση αγορών για τη λειτουργία και ανάπτυξη τους, τα οποία επιτυγχάνονται κυριαρχικά λόγω της ναυτιλίας.
3. Ο σχηματισμός και η διατήρηση βιώσιμων αλυσίδων εφοδιασμού είναι αδύνατος δίχως ναυτιλία. Τυχόν παύση της ναυτιλίας θα προξενούσε μη αναστρέψιμη ρήξη πολλών κρίκων αυτών των αλυσίδων.
4. Σε επίπεδο αγοράς, η εξοφάνιση της ναυτιλίας θα οδηγούσε σε στραγγαλισμό και πτώχευση πολλών επιχειρήσεων, καθώς και σε κατάρρευση πολλών εθνικών χρηματιστηρίων με τεκτονικές συνέπειες στο παγκόσμιο οικονομικό σύστημα.
5. Η έλλειψη αγαθών θα σηματοδοτούσε εκτόξευση του πληθωρισμού με δραματική μείωση του εισοδήματος και της αγοραστικής δύναμης των καταναλωτών.
6. Ανεργία, συνιστάμενη σε ναυτιλιακό προσωπικό αλλά, ιδίως, εργατικό δυναμικό λόγω κατάρρευσης των επιχειρήσεων.

7. Δραστηριότητες που τελούν σε εξάρτηση από πηγές ενέργειας, μεταφερόμενες από πλοία, θα αποδομούνται, όπως, ενδεικτικά, η χρήση κινητών, ηλεκτρονικών συσκευών, οχημάτων, ηλεκτρονικών τραπεζικών συναλλαγών.

8. Επισύμβαση ανθρωπιστικών κρίσεων, αρχικά σε μικρονησιακά συμπλέγματα, κατόπιν σε περικόκιστα αναπτυσσόμενα κράτη και εν τέλει στα αναπτυσσόμενα.
